Large Company Witnesses the Ceremony, Which Is Followed by Reception.

pecial Dispatch to THE New York Healin-Boston, June 15.—Emmanuel Episcoal Church in Back Bay was the scene f a large gathering at noon to-day for the wedding of Miss Harriet Sears smory and Mr. Warwick Potter. The tev. Endicott Peabody, D. D., of Groton and the Rev. Percy Kammerer, curate of the parish, officiated.
Miss Amory was escented into the tendants. She wore a wedding gown cloth of silver and lace, made for her France, and with it a full bridal vetice.

The best man was Mr. Hamilton Fish of ter, brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were Messrs. Benjamin W. Boron of Washington, Edric Amory led of Boston, Ewen Cameron Machagh, Frederick J. Deveau, Charlton eynders and Robert Quimby, all of New York in the fall.

After the ceremony a wedding breakst was served at the home of the indic's mother, Mrs. William Amory, 407 mmonwealth avenue.

Mr. James T. Lee and the Misses Saturday for the season for Mr. Taller and his guests.

Mrs. Stuart Duncan will arrive Saturday at Bonnie Crest for the season after a sojourn abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clews will occupy the Rocks, their villa in Newport, on June 23.

Mr. John Parsons; who sailed for Europe last Wednesday will join his mother, Mrs. Frederic Jennings Parsons, in Paris. Mrs. Parsons will return to New York in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Jennings Parsons, in Paris. Mrs. Parsons will return to New York in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barrymore arrived from New York to-day and are stopping at the Muenchinger King.

Miss Alice Claggett Fuller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Higginson Puller, will be married next Friday to Mr. Charles Prentice Goodhue of Washington, Li. I.

Mrs. James T. Lee and the Misses best man.

York.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. William Amory, 407 Commonwealth avenue.

The bride is a member of one of the oldest and best known families of Boston. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burnside Potter of Antietam Farm Smithtown; I. I. and a and Mrs. Robert Burnside Potter of Antictam Farm, Smithtown, L. I., and a grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Fish. He also is a grandnephew of the late Bishop Henry Codman Potter of New York. He was graduated from Harvard in 1919 and recently finished a post graduate course at the Harvard Engineering School. The couple will sall for Europe on June 28 and remain abroad until September.

Dr. and Mrs. Norman E. Ditmsn will go to Southampton the latter part of this month.

Mrs. Campbell Steward and her son. Mr. Campbell we Steward, who returned to New York a few days ago after a visit in Stockholm, will be for some time at Grasslands in Goshen, N. Y., and later will go to Bar Harbor.

Miss Frances Antoinette Wright, aughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Vright of Ivy Close, Forest Hills Garens, L. I., was married to Mr. Fredrick Ira Ordway, Jr., of Manchester by he Sea, and Boston, last night in the hurch in the Gardens, Forest Hills. The ceremony was performed by The ceremony was performed by Bishop Albion Knight of New Jersey, and the Rev. William Lander, rector of the Roosevelt Memorial Church, of Forest Hills.

Forest Hills.

Miss Daisy Wright was her sister's maid of honor, the bridesmaids being Misses Katherine Horner, daughter of Bishop Horner of North Carolina; Katherine Kohn of Pittsburgh and Adelaide Parker of New York. Mr. Richard Ordway served as his brother's best man. The ushers were Messrs. Albert Wright, Jr., Vernon Roth, Harold Smith and E. J. House. A reception was held in the ball room of Forest Hills Inn and salso on the lawn of the hotel.

The bride was educated at the National Cathedral School in Washington. Most of her life has been passed in Most of her life has been passed in Cuba, where her father, an authority on international law, practised his profession. Mr. Ordway was during the war with the first pursuit group of Aero Squadron A. Mr. and Mrs. Ordway will live in Reston.

HUNTER—GINNA.

In the Church of St. Anselm, Clinton avenue at 155th street, yesterday, Miss Grace Ursula Ginna, daughter of Mrs. Marie Ginna of 855 Cretona Park North, was married to Mr. Edward Joseph Hunter by the Very Rev. Prior Bernard. O. S. D., assisted by Father Louis and Father Richard. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. Peter Hartmann. There were two best men, Messrs. Frederick V. Ruddock and Michael Meahy. The bride was attended by the Misses Mary MacDonald, Agnes Hopper and Anna Hunter. The unlers were Messrs. James Ginna and Joseph Hunter. The breakfast was at the Hotel Marseilles.

The marriage of Miss Elsie Lee Smith, daughter of the late Joseph B. Smith and of Mrs. Smith of 1671 Nelson avenue. New York, to Mr. Howard A. Cottingham of Cranford, N. J., took place yesterday in the Old First Presbyterian Church, Fifth avenue and Twelfth street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas G. Speers and while the guests were assembling there was a recital of organ music by Dr. William C. Carl and Mrs. Leonard Pranter sang. and while the guests were assembling there was a recital of organ music by Dr. William C. Carl and Mrs. Leonard Pranter sang.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. of the summer at Kennebunkport, Me.

William Adelman, Misses Erna L. Friedrich, Marion A. Jones, Hilda Davis, Miriam and Mildred Grote. Jean Jones, Elsie Eberlein and Virginia Friedrich were flower girls. Mr. Maurice Garabrant was best man. The ushers were Messrs. Wray Lewis, Zebulon Woodard, William Adelman, Remsen Holbert and John Ehret. There was a reception and dinner in the Colonial room of the Hotel McAlpin. Mr. and Mrs. Cottingham will go to Canada for their wedding trip and will live in New York.

CALHOUN-WHEELER.

CALHOUN—WHEELER.

Special Dispatch to The New York Hemald.
Bridgeport, Conn., June 15.—In St.
John's Episcopal Church, Bridgeport, this afternoon Miss Doris Antoinette Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D.
Fairchild Wheeler of 75 Lafayette place, Bridgeport, and Mr. Philo Clark Calhoun, Bridgeport lawyer, were married by Bishop Chauncey Brewster of the diocese of Connecticut, assisted by the Rev. Stephen Fish Sherman, rector of the church. Mrs. John Sterling was matron of honor and Miss Julie Wheeler, sister of the bride, maid of honor. Joan Sterling and Lillian Cordelia Bassick were flower girls. The bridesmaids were the Misses Elizabeth Leeds, Ethel Skinner. Virginia C. Ives, Elizabeth Havens, Alice Chapman and Dorothy Kidd of New York city. 1.

FOR MISS PORTER'S WEDDING.

FOR MISS PORTER'S WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. William Angus Porter have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Marie Porter, to Mr. Ray Perkins of Haleyon Park, New Rochelle, on Thursday evening. June 22, at their home at Beechmont. New Rochelle, N. Y. Miss Porter will be attended by Miss Alice Braun of New York city as maid of honor and the Misses Genevieve Jeandron of Nor, ralk, Conn.; Dorothy Otto of Brooklyf. Beatrice Perkins and Ruth Porter of New Rochelle as bridesmaids.

Mr. C. Alan Eckels of New York city will be the best man and Charlotte B. Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Porter of Bayside, L. I., will be flower girl.

MISS CLOPPER ENGAGED.

At a dinner and dance given last night at The Penington, Stuyveeant Square, Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Clopper of 215 East Fifteenth street and Cincinnati Ohio, announced the engagement of their daughter. Miss Rhodd Clopper. to Dr. Eugene Bulson of Fort Wayne, Ind. Among those present were Senora

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE. T. Suffern Tailer Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clark Grew and the Misses Edith, Lilla and Anita Grew of Boston, who arrived by the Majestic, are at the Belmont. Mr. Grew, who is a brother of Mrs. J. Plerpont Morgan, is in the American diplomatic service and recently was attached to the lega-tion at Berne. Opens His Newport Home for Season

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Williams will go on July 1 to their house in Locust Valley, L. I.

will take place to-morrow at 413 West Twenty-third street, the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Mrs. Frederic Nellson has left her apartment at the Plaza and has gone to Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey Ladew of $13 Madison avenue are at the Plaza until they go to their camp on Racquette

Miss Caroline C. Prentice gave a luncheon yesterday at Pierre's for Miss Ruth V. Twombly.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Davie of Tuxedo Park and Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Aldrich of Snug Harbor. Great Neck, L. I., are at the Ritz-Carlton.

Baron de Cartier, the Ambassador of Belgium, left for New York yesterday and will sail for Europe Saturday.

Senator Lodge has returned from Bos-ton and New York.

New York arrivals at Washington

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel J. Hess have Reginald C. Vanderbilt Soon to Return to Sandy Point · Farm for Summer.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. V. Hoffman, who sailed for Europe last Tuesday, will go first to Parls. They will remain abroad six weeks and on their return will go to Tuxedo.

abroad six weeks and on their return will go to Tuxedo.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Masten have gone to their camp in the Adirondacks.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Witherbee of Ledgetop, Port Henry, N. Y., are at the Ambassador, also Mr. and Mrs. Marsden J. Perry of Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sloane will go to their house in Water Mill. L. I., June 23, and his guests.

Mrs. James T. Lee and the Misses Lee of 420 Park avenue will sail to-mor-row on the Majestic to remain abroad until October.

Fuller, and Mr. Fisher Goodhue will be best man.

The Rev. and Mrs. James Potter Conover of South Portsmouth have sent out invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Eleanor Stewart Conover, to Mr. Chauncey Haven Beasley at St. Mary's Church Saturday, June 24. Mr. Beasley's family being in mourning, the wedding breakfast is to be only for the families. Miss Conover's sister, Mrs. Herbert Henriques, will be her matron of honor, and Miss Margaret Thayer Graham and Miss Rosemary Howe of Philadelphia will be bridesmaids.

ELECT TWO HISTORIANS The marriage of Miss Margaret McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McClure, to Mr. Ormonde de Kay, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles de Kay, TO FRENCH ACADEMY

MM. de Nolhac and Goyau Chosen for Vacancies.

PARIS, June 15 (Associated Press).—
Two historians, Pierre de Nolhac and Georges Goyau, were elected by the French Academy to-day to succeed to the chairs of the late Emile Boutroux
and Denys Cochin

Mrs. Umberto Coletti of Florence, Italy, who is arriving on the Olympic, will go to the Plaza, where she will be met by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. Henry Lancashire, who have come from Manchester by the Sea.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rose of Old Westbury, L. I., gave a luncheon yester-day at Sherry's for their son, Mr. Regi-naid P. Rose, who later in the day started for California. first time since the Dreyfus case, when he took umbrage at the attitude of some

Mrs. Harding entertained a group of ladies aboard the Mayflower yesterday afternoon, her guests being the wives of Representatives in Congress. Tea was served on the return cruise and the Mayflower band played during the afternoon.

Bridegroom Is Son of Former Mayor of Rome.

GENOA. June 15.—Miss Jeanne Marie Perkins, daughter of Edward Elisworth Perkins of New York, was married today in St. Bartholomew's Chapel to Prince Don Fabrizio Colonna, son of Prince Prospero Colonna, former Mayor of Rome. Prince Colonna comes from one of the oldest families in the ancient Roman aristocracy.

Miss Perkins's sister, Miss Olive Perkins, also married into the Italian aristocracy. Her husband is the Marquis Stefano Antonio d'Amico. Their marriage followed a courtship in the United States while the Marquis was attached to the Italian war mission.

Mrs. Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, wife of the New Jersey Senator, returned to Washington yesterday from Raritan, N. J., where she has been for the last ten

MISS FAHYS'S WEDDING PLANS.

H. E. Coleman, Charles L. Gurney,
Thomas J. Hargrove, Mr. and Mrs. S.
W. Murray, Brig. Gen. Palmer E.
Pierce, D. H. Ralston, W. S. Wilcox, F.
H. Wood.
New Ebbett—Mr. and Mrs. W. M.

Ensign D. Merrill Downes, U. S. N. will act as best man for his brother and the ushers will be Messrs. Donald G. Downes, another brother, Hugh Lenox Bond 3d., Felix Leser and Griffith Bailey Coale, all of Baltimore; Joseph Fahys 2d, brother of the bride, and J. Henry Harper, Jr. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Hynest M. Stires, rector of St. Thomas's Church.

dering of the minimum of the function of the f

MR. PENFIELD RESTS FASILY.

Frederic Courtland Penfield, formerly nati Ohio, announced the engagement of their daughter. Miss Rhoda Clopper. to Dr. Eugene Bulson of Fort Wayne. Ind. Among those present were Senora Teresa de Vidal and Senor Eugenio Vidal of Antofagasta, Chile, Judge and Mrs. J. R. F. Savage of San Juan. Porto Rico, Mrs. William M. Chase of New York, Mr. and Mrs. T. Walworth, Miss Helen Warford, Miss Gertrude Pierce and Mr. George Hubbard of Greenwich, Conn., and Miss Geraldine Bulson of Fort Wayne.

East Eighty-second street are at Brianger and Senor and Mrs. Charlest and Mrs. Charlette L. Senator Honry Cabot Lodge is here from Washington for a few days and is at the Hotel Astor.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Daniel Orth and Miss Gertrude Pierce and Mr. George Hubbard of Greenwich, Conn., and Miss Geraldine Bulson of Fort Wayne.

JUMPERS THE FEATURE AT WESTCHESTER COUNTY SHOW

McE. Bowman's Waterway Is First and Mrs. Geraldyn Redmond's Radiant Is Fourth in

and Denys Cochin.

Only twenty-nine of the "Forty Immortals" composing the full strength of the illustrious company were present. The Academy now numbers thirty-five. Among those absent was former Premier Clemenceau, who has not yet been formally received.

Anatole France was present for the first time since the Drayfus case, when he took umbrage at the attitude of some Academicians.

Except for Marshal Lyautey, who is detained in Morocco, the other Marshals including Joffre and Foch, were present, as well as Premier Poincare, Minister of Justice Barthou and Alexandre Ribot.

M. de Nolhac was born in the Department of Puy de Dome in 1859. He is the author of a number of historical works and critical essays and has written several volumes on Marle Antoinette and the Court of Louis XV.

M. Goyau was born in Orieans in 1869. He has specialized in religious history and is now engaged in writing the religious section of a history of France. He married the daughter of Felix Faure during the latter's Presidency.

MISS PERKINS WED

TO PRINCE COLONNA

Bridegroom is Son of Former

Mayor of Rome.

Heart, ch. g., third M. J. Devaney's Black Watch, blk. g., and Barrier, br. g.; fourth, a S. a C. Luddum's Little Sandy, b. c., and Sandy b. c., and Mrs. Hoover, formerly an army aviator and now in charge of the aviation department of the Brazilian exposition, and Mrs. Hoover, Mrs. Ida Service, and Mrs. Hoover, Mrs. Ida Service, and Mrs. Ramon Santa Mrs. Clark S. Peck's Winona, b. m.; third, Mrs. Clark S. Peck's Winona, b. m.; third, Mrs. Chem. Growth, Miss Janet Mackay's Cherokee Princess, ch m. Clark Prony jumpers. Won by Shanarock Farm's Huck Finn, ch. g.; second, Princess D. N. Golitsine's Heigh-Ho, former Markey and Mrs. Ramon Santa Murical Princess D. N. Golitsine's Heigh-Ho, former War Baby, b. m.

Among the young women of society who acted as waitresses in the tea room during the show were Misses Isabel Rockefeller, Polly Lincoln, Eleanor Croft, Winifred Croft, L. K. Bowers and S. W. Stuart and Mrs. Reginald Coombe.

Maurelania from Chrone Pan-America were Orton Hoover, formerly an army aviator and now in charge of the aviation department of the Brazilian exposition, and Mrs. Hoover; Mrs. Ida Servicon, and Mrs. Hoover; Mrs. Ida Servicon, and Mrs. Hoover, Grott on the Argentina, and Mrs. Boyd, and Mrs. Ramon Santamaria of Argentina, who are on a honeymon trip around the world.

Voyagers On Mauretania by the Pan-America were Orton Hoover, formerly an army aviator and now in charge of the aviation department of the Brazilian exposition, and Mrs. Ramon Santamaria attac

Alumni of Academy in Rome Settled There With Family for

MISS FAHYS'S WEDDING PLANS.

Announcement was made yesterday that at a dinner given Wednesday night at the Columbia University Club by Harry Allan Jacobs, president of the American Academy in Rome alumni, it was decided by the alumni to erect a memorial on the campus at Columbia University to Charles F. McKim, famous architect and a founder of the American Academy in Rome. The alumni number nearly one hundred.

J. Leary.

102. His associates and his doctor beEnsign D. Merrill Downes. U. S. N. lieve he caught cold due to the change sociation of New Jersey will open here to-morrow.

New York arrivals to-day include:
Ritz-Carlton — Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. P. Bolton, Jr., Miss Evelyn Collins, Misses H. and K. Broderich, S. A. Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Boggs, George MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Peabody, Mrs. E. N. Philips and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Gilmore.

Peabody, Mrs. E. N. Philips and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Gilmore.
Mariborough-Blenheim—Hugh Winter and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Preston.
Dennis—G. W. Sweeney, Grant Porter, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Farlow and A. P. Hagan.
Traymore—Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Legrande Parish, F. H.

GOV. MILLER AT LAKE GEORGE COTTAGE

One of the important weddings of June 24 will be that of Miss Constants Fahys, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Fahys, to Mr. J. Watson Downes of Baltimore, which will be celebrated at Hillaire, the country place of the bride's parents in Locust Valley, L. I. The ceremony will take place on the lawn and will be followed by a large reception.

Miss Fahys has selected for her matron of honor, Mrs. G. Ernest Fahys, Jr., and the bridesmaids will include Misses Bertha Fahys Barclay, Beatrice Jackson, Elizabeth House, Julia Shearer, Dorothy Bostwick and Marie J. Leary.

American Academy in Rome alumni it was decided by the alumni to erect a memorial on the campus at Columbia University to Charles F. McKim, famous mer place on the lake shore that was the home of the late Edward M. Sheperlock the home of Brooklyn, north of Lake George on the lake shore that was the home of the late Edward M. Sheperlock the home of Brooklyn, north of Lake George on the lake shore that was the home of the late Edward M. Sheperlock the home of Brooklyn, north of Lake George on the lake shore that was the home of the late Edward M. Sheperlock the home of Brooklyn, north of Lake George on the lake shore that was the home of the lake shore that was the home of Brooklyn, north of Lake George on the lake shore that was the home of the lake Edward M. Sheperlock the home of Brooklyn, north of Lake George on the lake shore that was the home of Brooklyn, north of Lake George on the lake shore that was the home of Brooklyn, north of Lake George on the lake shore that was the home of Brooklyn, north of Brooklyn, north of Lake George on the lake shore that was the home of Brooklyn, north of Lake George on the lake shore that was the home of Brooklyn, north of Broo retary at the executive chamber here. While at Lake George, however, the Governor is expected to break his silence as to his future plans. A formal statement concerning a renomination is looked for from the Governor by Repub-lican leaders early in the summer. Gov. Miller will attend the funeral of George W. Aldridge at Rochester to-

TRIBUTE TO MISS RUSSELL.

Nearly 5,000 theatrical people and friends and admirers of Lillian Russell in every walk of life will attend the service in her memory at the Hippo-drome at 2 o'clock this afternoon, ac-Hagan.

Traymore—Mr, and Mrs. H. B. Henry,
Mr. and Mrs. Legrande Parish, F. H.
Whitney, Edward L. Leeds, J. H. Van
Noss, Mrs. John Walsh and Miss Irene Walsh.

Ambassador—Mrs. Virginia Johnson,
Mrs. D. H. Crosby, Thomas N. Lill, J. L.
Jones, R. H. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. A.
C. Murphy, E. R. Snyder, A. F. Gaum and G. B. McKay.

drome at 2 o'clock this afternoon, according to estimateg based upon advanced to cording to estimate passed upon advanced to the line that for six years.

BR. Rosalle Bell. an inspector of the line for six years.

BOR. To Rosalie Bell.

Dr. Rosalie Bell. an inspector of the line for six years.

St. Vincent's hospital, West Brighton.

Staten Island. Her home was at 336

Sta

French Liner Like College Afloat as Schoolgirls Sail

Score of Instructors and 75 Was. Vice-President and Gen-Students Among Voyagers on the Chicago.

The French liner Chicago, off yesterday for Havre, is like a university affoat with more than a score of college professors, school teachers and seventy-five school girls from Texas and the Southwest, who will spend the larger part of their European vacation in France. Prof. Maximilian Rudwin of the chair of French literature at Swarthmore, author of "The Satanism of Chatcaubriand," is making a pligrimage to the tomb of the French author.

Other professors aboard are M. A. Constans and Leon Arnal of the University of Minnesota, Alfred H. Cumaer of the University of Pennsylvania, J. H. Rogers of Cornell and L. J. Laporte of the Sorbonne.

Several hundred Irish-Americans, all Roman Catholics, sailed yesterday for Cobh (Queenstown) by the Cunarder Carmania to visit the most interesting places in southern Ireland. The liner will stop to-day at Boston where 335 more Irish-Americans will embark. The party will be personaily conducted by Peter A. McNally of the Cunard office, An altar has been set up in the ship and mass will be celebrated daily during the woyage.

Three boys of Cecil county, Maryland, and Stock Show at Cambridge, by defeating thirteen other State teams at the Southeastern Fair at Atlanta in judging dairy cattle, beef cattle, sheep and swine, are sailing by the Carmania, They are Warren Rice, George Worrllow and Joseph Glackin, whose ages range from fifteen to seventeen. They are accompanied by W. C. Carr, County Agent for Montsomery county, Maryland; E. G. Jenkins, State Boys Club Agent of Maryland, and C. L. Chambers of the United States to the Brazilian Centennial Exposition, and C. L. Chambers of the United States to the Real and Canada and C. Collier, Commissioner-General from the United States to the Brazilian Centennial Exposition, and C. L. Chamber of Commerce for Brazil, arrived from Rio yesterday by the Munson liner Pan-America and went the M

Col. David C. Collier, CommissionerGeneral from the United States to the Brazilian Centennial Exposition, and William Grant Stevens, president of the American Chamber of Commerce for Brazil, arrived from Rio yesterday by the Munson liner Pan-America and went to Washington to ask President Harding to send a large feet of warships to Rio for the opening of the exposition. Co.
Collier said the exposition is 90 per cent.
complete and will be ready for the inaugural ceremonies on September After commenting on the report that the navy is handicapped by an insufficiency of oil fuel, Col. Collier said:
"If the big, wealthy sister of the South American nations should let a little matter of fuel interfere with manifesting her family interest in this, the greatest of South American expositions, and allow a more brilliantly attired visitor outside the family to carry off the honors, I am sure the South American peoples, and especially our good friends the Brazillans, would wonder if Pan-American GEODGE W.

In addition to being vice-president and general manager of the Commercial Cable Company he was a director of the L
Commercial Company of Cuba, Commercial Pacific Cable Company, the Mackay Companies, the National Surety Comppany, Postal Telegraph and the United States and Hayti Telegraph and the United States and Trust Company. He was also president of the St. George's Society of New York in 1899 and 1990, was a manager of St. Luke's Hospital, a member of the Chamber of Commerce, the Union and Hardware clubs and an officer of the Pilgrims.

Mrs. Ward died in 1918. Dr. George Gray Ward, Jr., chief surgeon of the Woman's Hospital: Sidney F. Ward of the Stock Exchange firm of Ward, Gruver & Co., sons, and a daughter.
Flaurence Oliphant Ward Hough, the wife of Capt. Henry Hughes Hough, U. S. N., survive him.

American nations should let a little matter of fuel interfere with manifesting
her family interest in this, the greatest of South American expositions, and allow a more brilliantly attired visitor outside the family to carry off the honors, I am sure the South American peoples, and especially our good friends the Brazillians, would wonder if Pan-American sisterhood is any more than a name.
Our sentiment would be well expressed by the attendance of an imposing the sentiment would be to the property of the property

OUTTERSON'S WILL FILED.

The will of James A. Outterson, paper manufacturer, of 780 West End avenue, who died May 6, was filed for probate yesterday, bequeathing the bulk of his estate to his widow, Mrs. Eva S. Outterson of Carthage, N. Y. She will receive all the personal effects and the life income of a trust fund of $409,000, which later is to be divided between her daughter, Mrs. Eva G. Balmat of Carthage, and a granddaughter, Mary G. Outterson. A codicil of November 19, 1920, sets apart a trust fund of $200,000 for Ella Madaline Murphy, formerly of

Mr. Robertson was born at Milnathort.
Kinrossshire, and was a son of William Robertson. He was educated at Edinburgh University and in 1891 became first English master at Edinburgh Ladies' College. He also held master-bridge at other schools.

Lost on 5th av., between 30th and 40th sts., finder will be liberally rewarded. Telephone Worth 3438.

Ladles' College. He also held master-ships at other schools.

He was the author of numerous vol-umes of prose and poetry and edited the works of many of the older poets, in-cluding Scott, Milton, Burns, Chaucer and Tennyson. Among his own works were "Orellana and Other Poems," "Hor-ace in Homespun," "The White Angel and Other Stories" and "A History of English Literature."

George G. Ward, Cable Executive, Is Dead, Aged 78

eral Manager of Commercial Company 44 Years.

The French liner Chicago, off yester-day for Havre, is like a university afloat with more than a score of college in the cable communication field for

GEORGE W. ALDRIDGE'S BODY TO LIE IN STATE

Customs Officers From Here Will Attend Funeral.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

ROCHESTER, June 15.—The train carrying the body of George W. Aldridge, Collector of the Port of New York and former. Republican leader of western New York, arrived here at 3 o'clock this morning, after being considerably delayed by a freight wreck in the Mohawk Valley. The body was taken to the Aldridge home in Plymouth after a death mask had been made by an undertaker.

fork on the Cunard liner from Cherbourg Saturday Hotchkiss, Charles R. Barnes, Carl L. Vincent Astor, Mrs. Charles Mr. Selmer Fougner, who

Also Mr. and Mrs. Edwin P. Brown and family of Boston, Miss Elizabeth Hathenay of Hartford, Conn.: Mr. Walter E. Bell of Jersey City, Miss Helen Porter of Montelair, N. J.; Miss Sari Blumenthal of Baltimore, Mr. John G. Hillton of Albany and Miss Janet Hollingshead of Robertson, N. J.

OUTTERSON'S WILL FILED.

and her son, George W. Aldridge, Jr. "the deepest sympathy of the Customs Service of the port." The members named on the committee are: F. J. H. Kracke, appraiser; Arthur F. Foran, naval officer: Thomas W. Whittle, surgery of Howard D. Esterbrook, Special agent; and Henry C. Stuart, acting Collector.

Another committee to pay its respects to the late political leader of Monroe to the late political leader of Monroe county was named by Nathaniel A. Eisberg, president of the National Republican Club. On it are Charles D. Hilles, former Governor Whitman, George A. Glynn, Ralph A. Day, Wil-

LOST AND FOUND.

Jewelry.

1920, sets apart a trust fund of $290,000 for Ella Madaline Murphy, formerly of Carthage, who is to receive the income during her life, the principal later to be divided between the two younger heirs who inherit Mrs, Outterson's share. The Carthage Free Library will receive a bequest of $25,000.

VAN WYCK ESTATE TO FAMILY.

LOST—White gold rectangular wrist watch, on 5th av. bus, 12:30 Tuesday afternoon. York, N. J.

LOST—Tuesday evening, large diamond brooch between 40 W. 45th st. and Playhouse. 48th st. Liberal reward. A. W.

LOST—Tuesday, platfnum bar pin with diamond inserted; reward. D 620 Herald, 280 LOST-White gold rectangular wrist watch on 5th av. bus, 12:30 Tuesday afternoon. Phone Union 4680; 325 16th st., West New York, N. J.

The will of former Justice Augustus
A. Van Wyck, who died in Hahnemann Hospital June S. was filed yesterday in the Surrogate's Court. The estate goes equally to the son, William, and daughter, Mrs. Leila G. Osborne of 125 West Sixteenth street. The will was dated April 24.

JAMES LOGIE ROBERTSON.
London, June 15.—News has been received here of the death in Edinburgh yesterday of James Logie Robertson, the author, who was widely known under the pen name "Hugh Haliburton."

Mr. Robertson was born at Milnathort,
Kinrossshire, and was a son of William Robertson. He was educated at Edinburgh University and in 1891 became mond inserted; reward. D 620 Herald, 280 Breadway.

SCST—Saturday, gold pin, bar of music, notes, diamends; reward. ALLEN, 42 W.

LOST—Pendant Jade earring; reward. CORMACK, 342 Madison av. Murray Hill 6276.

S200 REWARD
for return of platnum locket set with diamonds. lost about June 3 between West 141st
st, and Blitmore Country Club. A. C. RENNETT, 15 William st.
S100 REWARD
for return of silver mesh bag initiated
A. L. R., and contents, including ring, diamond in center, surrounded by apphires, lost June 3 between West 141st
st, and Blitmore Country Club. A. C. RENNETT, 15 William st.
S100 REWARD
for return of platnum locket set with diamonds lost about June 3 between West 141st
st, and Blitmore Country Club. A. C. RENNETT, 15 William st.
S100 REWARD
for return of platnum locket set with diamonds lost about June 3 between West 141st
st, and Blitmore Country Club. A. C. RENNETT, 15 William st.
S100 REWARD
for return of platnum locket set with diamonds lost about June 3 between West 141st
st, and Blitmore Country Club. A. C. RENNETT, 15 William st.
S100 REWARD
for return of platnum locket set with diamonds lost about June 3 between West 141st
st, and Blitmore Country Club. A. C. RENNETT, 15 William st.
S100 REWARD
for return of platnum locket set with diamonds lost about June 3 between West 141st
st, and Blitmore Country Club. A. C. RENNETT, 15 William st.
S100 R

LOST-Sable neckplece, Monday, bus, Frank lin-Simon or vicinity; reward, LEIBOVIT Ellilings 2000, Apt. 11-G. works or between Altman's and McCreery's; re-ward; return, E., 339 Columbus av.

Cats, Dogs &c. LOST-Handsome Maltese Angera cat, male liberal reward for information, HODKIN-BON, 718 Palleade av., Grantwood, N. J. Cliffelde 146.

Call Columbus 8200

THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY Book of views or depresentative.

CAPT. JAMES HUNTER. Capt. James Hunter, who was a member of the Fire Department for fifty years, died yesterday in his home. 27 Vanderbit avenue. Stapleton, Staten Island. He was born in this city and entered the Fire Department when 23 years old. He had won many medals for bravery. In most of his service he was assigned to fire stations in Harlem. He leaves his wife, two daughters and a sister.

liam Leary, Henry Birrelt and Justices Adelbert P. Rich and John Woodward. The Society of the Genesse also adopted resolutions on Mr. Aldridge's death. An expression of sympathy was sent to Mrs. Aldridge by the State Athletic Commission, signed by H. P. Burchell, secretary.

colorado Springs yesterday afternoon, according to a message received here last night. At the home of his son, George R. Leslie, Jr., in Rumson, N. J., it was said that no word of the death had been received, although it was not unexpected.

Mr. Leslie was 59 years old. Besides his wife, who was Miss Lydia Erving, he leaves aix sons.

J. Howard Dews, aged 48, of 529 Park avenue, died in his home yesterday after a short Illness. He was born in Provi-dence, R. I. Surviving him is his wife, a daughter of Mrs. Catheriae Warden, who died on Saturday last.

MARRIAGES

COHN-WEINER.-Thursday, June 15, in New York city, Mr. Edwin J. Cohn to Mrs. Aimee Hatch Weiner. QUINCY-BÉLLOWS.-June 10, at Walpole, N. H., by the Rev. Hugh Eglinton Mont-gomery, Mary Howard Bellows of Wal-pole, daughter of Mrs. Josiah Graeme Bellows, to George Gilbert Quincy of Boston.

DIED.

54th st., Sunday, June 18, at 2 P. M. Interment Woodlawn Ceneterry.

CARTER.—At the Charles Gate Hospital, Cambridge, Mass., on June 14, 1922, Frank Hastings Carter of 80 Washington square east. New York city, in his 77th year, son of the late Thomas Butler and Catherine Raymond Carter. Services private at the residence of his son, R. H. A. Carter, Chestnut Hill, Mass. Chicago (III.) papers please copy.

COLEMAN.—At Irvington, N. Y., June 15, 1922, Martha Ellis, wife of the late Thomas Coleman and beloved mother of Florence C. Grugan, in her S2d year, Funeral service will be held at his late residence, 25 South C st., on Sunday, 18th inst., at 2:30 P. M. Interment Sleepy Hollow Cemetery.

DEWS.—On June 15, 1922, J. Howard Dews of S29 Park av., New York, formerly of Providence, R. I. Services will be held at the home of Mrs. William N. Kerr, Sewickley, Pa., Sunday afternoon, June 18, at 3 o'clock. Providence papers please copy.

on Saturday, June 17, at 8 P. M.

MUNGER.—At Plainfield, N. J., on Thursday, June 15, 1922, Gartrude C., wife of H. Raymond Munger, Services at her late residence, 42 Washington av., Plainfield, N. J., on Saturday, June 17, at 3 P. M. Please omit flowers.

NEWROULD.—Emily S., on June 14, 1922.
Funeral services at St. Andrew's Church, 127th st. and 5th av., on Saturday, June 17, at 2 P. M. Will friends attend if possible?

possible?
PEAKE.—On Wednesday, June 14, 1922, at her home, Aurora on Cayuga, N. Y., in her 74th year, Margaret Cuthell Peake, beloved wife of William Peake and daughter of the late Thomas Hugh and Eliza Hates Cuthell. Funeral at Aurora on Cayuga, June 16.

Cayuga, June 18.
PETERSON.—Joseph of New York city, age about 32, suddenly June 12, 1922, at Upper Saranac Lake, Adirondacks.
SCHULTZ.—On Thursday, June 15, 1922, in his 60th year, Charles E., beloved hushard of Mary (nee Seely). Funcral service at his late residence, at Florida, Orange county, N. Y., Saturday, June 17, at 2 P. M.

at 2 P. M.

STEELL—On June 15, Margaret, Remains reposing at the chapel of the Stephen Murritt Burial and Cremation Company, 161 Sth av. corner 18th st.

STOTT—Mrs. Charles Henry (nee Grace Hogardus), suidenly at Manhattan Square Sanitarium, New York, Thursday, June 15, at 8 A. M. Survived by her huzbard, Charles Henry Stott, and daughters, Mrs. Marian Stott and Mrs. Arthur J. Picard, Services Christ Church, Hudson, N. Yi, Saturday, June 17, at 2 P. M.

STOTT—Grace, at CAMPBELL, FUNERAL

Saturday, June 17, at 2 P. M.
STOTT—Grace, at CAMPBELL FUNERAL
CHURCH until Saturday.
WARD.—On Thursday, June 15, 1922, at his residence, 51 West 53d st., George Cre
Ward in the 78th year of his age. Funeacryless on Monday, June 19, at Th Church of the Heavenly Rest, 5th av. and 45th st., at 10:30 A. M.
WIDCOURD Julius halongers. with st., at 10:30 A. M.

VITCOVER.—Jullus, beloved husband of Fanny, father of Samuel, Theresa, Beatrice, Siblon, on Wednesday, June 14, in his 58th year, Funeral from late residence, 321 5th st., Union Hill, N. J., Friday morning 10:30. Marion (S. C.) papers please copy.

IN MEMORIAM.

RAFBURN-Memorial services will be held for the late Sir Ernest M. Raeburn, K. B. E. at Trinity Church, Broadway and Wall Street, 12 o'clock noon, Friday June 16. UNDERTAKERS.

THE FUNERAL CHURCH

FRANK E.CAMPBELL The Juneral Church's Broadway at 66th St. CEMETERIES, &C.